Private Car and Private Car Gold policy summary

What are the significant or unusual exclusions or limitations of Private Car insurance?

Your policy excludes some situations. Please refer to your policy booklet Sections 1 – 15 for full details but the most significant or unusual exclusions are outlined below. Your policy excludes or limits the following:

- Third Party Only cover for the policyholder to drive other people's cars is only provided under Comprehensive policies where the policyholder is aged 25 or more at the commencement, or renewal, of the policy. Your certificate of motor insurance will show if you have this cover.
- The first part of any claim – this is known as the "excess" (see Section 1). These are set out below.

Standard excess	£200
Additional young driver excesses for accidental damage claims are in addition to the standard excess:
Aged 20 or under	£300
Aged 21 to 24	£200
Glass excess	£75

- Loss or damage arising from theft while the ignition keys of your car have been left in or on your car (see Section 1)
- Loss of use, reduction in value, wear and tear, or mechanical, electrical or computer breakdowns, failures or breakages (see Section 1)
- Loss of value following a repair (see Section 1)
- Confiscation or requisition or destruction by or under order of any government or public or local authority (see Section 1)
- The maximum amount that will be paid out for damage to a third party's property will be £20,000,000 (see Section 2)

Exclusions

Inappropriate use (refer to the General Exclusions section of your policy booklet)

- We will not pay for any accident, injury, loss or damage that occurs while your car is being used for a purpose not shown under the "Description of use" section of your certificate of motor insurance or while it is being driven by any person not described in your certificate of motor insurance as entitled to drive.

How long does my Private Car insurance run for?

The policy will remain in force for 12 months from the date of commencement (or as otherwise shown on your policy schedule) and for any period for which you renew the policy as long as you continue to pay your premium.

What happens if I take out cover and then change my mind?

You have the right to cancel your policy within 14 days either from the day of purchase or renewal of the policy or the day on which you receive your policy or renewal documentation, whichever is the later. If you wish to cancel and the insurance cover has not yet commenced, you will be entitled to a full refund of the premium paid.

What are Aviva charges for policy amendment and cancellation?

If you cancel within the 14 day period, you will be entitled to a refund of the premium paid, less a proportionate deduction for the time we have provided cover.

If you cancel after the 14 day period, in addition to the amount charged for the time we have provided cover, there will be a cancellation charge of up to £25.00 (plus Insurance Premium Tax where applicable).

If we cancel for any reason as set out in the 'Our right to cancel' section of the General Conditions in your policy booklet, there will be cancellation charge of up to £25.00 (plus Insurance Premium tax where applicable).

If you amend your policy we reserve the right to apply an administration charge of up to £10.00 (plus Insurance Premium Tax where applicable).

How do I make a claim?

Should you need to make a claim under this policy, please contact us on 0800 678999.

How do I make a complaint?

We hope that you will be very happy with the service we provide. However, if for any reason you are unhappy with it, we would like to hear from you. In the first instance, please contact your insurance adviser or usual Aviva point of contact.

We are covered by the Financial Ombudsman Service. If you have complained to us and we have been unable to resolve your complaint, you may refer it to this independent body. Following the complaints procedure does not affect your right to take legal action.

Would I receive compensation if Aviva were unable to meet its liabilities?

We are members of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). You may be entitled to compensation from this scheme if we cannot meet our obligations, depending on the type of insurance and the circumstances of your claim.
